

July/August 2018

Bula! from the Leonard Family!

JULY HIGHLIGHTS: We praise the Lord for a wonderful and surprisingly busy month for missions. Summertime usually seems pretty slow for missions but the Lord kept us busy!

We had the privilege of being in seven churches during July including one missions conference. We kept the roads busy as we started with an opportunity to present and preach at a church in North Carolina. We then headed for a few meetings in Florida. We traveled to Tennessee for a missions revival and back to Florida to finish out a round of meetings.

Thankfully the Lord kept us safe throughout our travels! Between meetings we were able to work a little at home: gearing up for school by purchasing our next year's curriculum, clearing more things from the house, and updating at our home church about our travels.

AUGUST HIGHLIGHTS: We started off August by a quick trip to Arkansas for a Missions Day! It was a blessing to see and hear many presentations of missions from around the world. I also had the opportunity later in the month to preach at a church in Tennessee that is currently without a pastor. My dad and other BIMI men have been helping to fill in during their time of need, and it was a privilege to also be with them and share a little about Fiji.

After being home for a short time we were able to again travel to Arkansas for a Missions Sunday. It was a great blessing to present, preach, and also spend time with the church family as we were invited over to a church member's house for a time of fellowship and games. Benjamin spent a majority of this time talking to the family's dog! It really seemed they were carrying on a full conversation!

FAMILY HIGHLIGHTS: Mid-August the girls were able to start back to school! Brianna was so excited to officially be in school like Alyssa. Benjamin is missing his playmates during the school hour but many times he decides to "join in" and get his coloring book and sit with them.

Praise the Lord we have had three new churches join us to reach Fiji for Christ! Our current support level is now at 85%!

In prayer for Fiji,
Robbie and Amanda Leonard
